

CHADO URASENKE TANKOKAI BOSTON ASSOCIATION

Membership Information

Membership runs from January 1st to December 31st. The current annual membership fees are as follows:

- Teacher Member $60.00
- Chamei Member $50.00
- Regular Member $40.00 Short term Member 1~6 months $20.00
- Student Member $35.00 (student ID required)
- Friends $25.00

Member Benefits:

Each member will receive the Boston Association's Newsletter by email as well as the hard copy Urasenke Newsletter from Headquarters in Kyoto.

Members will also receive an invitation to three annual tea gatherings:

- January: Hatsudate (New Year gathering)
- March: Rikyu-ki (Rikyu memorial tea)
- November: Robiraki (opening of the winter hearth)

Members are welcome to join any of the Association's activities such as lessons, special workshops, tea gatherings and demonstrations.

Instruction in the Way of Tea is available to all members who want to learn. Classes are currently held on the second floor of the Kyo-no-Machiya in the Boston Children's Museum.

Friends Benefit: will receive an invitation to attend annual tea gatherings.

Contact information in English or Japanese: urasenkeboston@gmail.com

Basic Tea Room Etiquette:

You may wear Japanese or Western attire. For Japanese attire, a kimono is appropriate for both men and women. For Western attire, both men and women should wear clean white socks, and women should wear a skirt or dress that covers her knees when sitting.

Please avoid: watches, jewelry, perfume, cologne, jeans, or bare shoulders.

